FAITH
MISSION STATEMENT

As a Jesuit, college preparatory school, Fordham Prep’s mission is to inspire young men to reflect, to question, to learn, to pray, to love, to serve, to lead. We have based our challenging curriculum and pursuit of human and academic excellence on a foundation of Catholic faith and principles. We seek to be one community created from a broad spectrum of ethnic, racial, geographic, and socioeconomic backgrounds. We strive to include qualified students of limited financial resources by providing substantial financial assistance. Our faculty and staff dedicate themselves to a caring and dynamic interaction with students both inside and outside the classroom, a characteristic of Jesuit education for over 450 years. We educate our students to be men for others: spiritually motivated, intellectually accomplished, and committed to promoting justice.
Dear Alumni and Friends,

As we come to the close of 2015, there is much to be grateful for at Fordham Prep. The faculty continues to work creatively to implement both our new 1 to 1 computing program and the recommendations from the NYSAIS (New York State Association of Independent Schools) accreditation process. The recent renovation of the Commons and construction of the new lobby have provided outstanding upgrades to the Prep’s first floor. But as always, it is for the many accomplishments of our students this past year in the areas of faith, scholarship, service, activities and athletics that we are most grateful. I will mention just three recent accomplishments.

The Prep’s mission of educating young people to be men for others takes many forms over the course of a year. One large-scale way is through our annual Hunger Awareness Month food drive. Organized by seniors on the Prep’s Ministry Leadership Team, the drive supports three local pantry services in the Bronx: Part of the Solution (POTS), Concourse House and Mercy Center. Each organization has come to depend on the Prep’s annual donation of over 20,000 food items to feed families in their communities. This year the Prep community set a new annual record, collecting 31,312 food items. The generosity of our students was matched by an alumnus who pledged $2 to the Prep’s annual fund for every food item collected. The donation, which was increased to $65,000, will help fund financial aid for prospective students from the areas the pantries serve. This year, the Prep’s service to the poor will not only meet the immediate need of hunger, but perhaps help to end the cycle of poverty for a family through a Prep education.

Our students also continue to excel as scholar-athletes. Senior Conor Lundy is one example. Conor, who recently committed to Princeton University, is a six-time all-American in Track and Field. Last spring, Conor won a New York State Championship in the 1600-meter run, and placed seventh at the Foot Locker National Cross Country Championships in San Diego on December 12th. Conor was among only forty high school boys in the nation to qualify for this meet and the first ever in Prep history. Conor’s accomplishments in both athletics and academics are shared by many here at the Prep this past year. In 2015, the Track and Field and Soccer teams both won CHSAA championships, and our Swimming and Diving team won its 5th straight NYS Public School Championship. Success in scholarship can also be measured by recent early decision admissions for our seniors to outstanding schools such as Cornell, Harvard, Princeton, Columbia, Dartmouth, Duke, Wesleyan, Vanderbilt and the University of Pennsylvania.

Finally, I want to highlight the success of our recent fall musical, All Shook Up. The show—in which over ninety Prep students participated as actors, musicians, singers, stage crew, and lighting and sound technicians—was an outstanding display of the arts at Fordham Prep. Prep students were joined by talented young ladies from several local schools for the two evening performances, which were attended by over 700 people. Increased funding for our theatre program allowed Prep students to work alongside Broadway musicians, stage hands, and lighting and sound technicians during this production. Many remarked that this was one of the finest performances in the history of the Leonard Theatre—a fitting tribute to Fr. Jack Leonard, SJ to whose memory the production was dedicated.

These accomplishments in service, athletics, academics and the arts are just a few examples of the impact of a Prep education on the young men we serve. We are most grateful for the continued generosity and support of Prep alumni and friends who make these and so many other accomplishments possible each year. May the New Year bring many continued blessings to the Prep community and to your family.

Sincerely,

Brian Carney, Principal
Dear Fordham Prep Community,

Within the pages of this report, you will find the names of hundreds of people who have made gifts to the Prep this past fiscal year. It is fitting that we list these names as a sign of our gratitude to those who have supported our mission of faith, scholarship and service.

Each name also represents a story: the story of an immigrant family that came to the shores of this great country generations ago in search of a better life and educational opportunity; the story of a grateful widow whose son received tuition assistance to make Fordham Prep more affordable; the story of a business leader, who traces his success and analytical skills to academic rigor instilled while he was a student in Mr. Foley’s Latin class; the story of a young man who earned an athletic scholarship to a top tier university thanks to his steady improvement on the lacrosse field under the direction of Mr. Hemsley; the stories of the many alumni who during their four years at the Prep learned dedication to a life of faith and service, and now serve our country in the military, our Church as priests or religious, our city as police officers, firefighters or teachers, and our communities as directors of non-profit organizations.

In my role, I have the unique blessing and honor to hear dozens of these stories. They humble me, as does your generosity. Last year, your total giving to Fordham Prep exceeded all previous years.

These stories also inspire me to continue to invite you to be generous and consider a gift to the Prep.

Our upcoming 175th anniversary presents an extraordinary opportunity to retell and discover anew the stories—and story—of Fordham Prep. It also represents an opportunity to ensure that we continue to make the gift of a Fordham Prep education accessible to bright young men regardless of their families’ ability to afford it.

For now, please be assured of my gratitude and my prayers for you, your family and the generations of young men yet to come to the Prep and grow into men for others, dedicated to God’s greater glory.

Sincerely yours,

Rev. Christopher J. Devron, SJ
President

Thank you for your generosity

Food Drive

Fordham Prep students took part in our annual Hunger Awareness Month Food Drive. Students donated nearly 10 tons of food (31,312 food items) to three local food pantries in the Bronx over the course of the month.

Donations were distributed to POTS, Concourse House and Mercy Center food pantries. In addition, through the generosity of an anonymous donor, $65,000 (approximately $2 for every item) was donated to Fordham Prep to assist with the tuition of students living in the same areas the food pantries serve.

Signing Day

On Friday, November 13, 2015 Fordham Prep acknowledged our senior scholar-athletes who signed letters of intent to compete in college.

Listed from top to bottom are the scholar-athletes and the institutions they will be attending in the fall of 2016.

Alec Nicaj - Providence, Colin Malarchuk - Wesleyan, William Morrissy - UPENN, Seamus Hall - Dartmouth, Conor McNamara - Marist, Brian McAuliffe - Denison, James Hulbert - Richmond, Jack Casella - Sacred Heart, Conor Lundy - Princeton
This past fall, the Fordham Prep Dramatics Society thrilled the house with their production of All Shook Up (A Musical Inspired by and featuring the songs of ELVIS PRESLEY® Book by Joe DiPietro*). Nearly 100 students — actors, stage crew, musicians, production staff and ushers — put on a show featuring spirited musical numbers, romantic twists and “one of the most stunning, moving scenery effects ever attempted on the Prep stage.” The energy of this production was palpable and had the audience fully energized and wanting more. Each performance opened with a moving dedication to the life and work of the patriarch of Fordham theater, the late Rev. John “Jack” Leonard, SJ.

* ALL SHOOK UP® is presented through special arrangement with and all authorized performance materials are supplied by Theatrical Rights Worldwide, 570 Seventh Avenue, Suite 2100, New York, NY 10018, (866) 378-9758 www.theatricalrights.com

Faculty and staff were recognized at the annual convocation in the Commons.

The Bene Merenti Award is presented to faculty and staff in recognition of 20 years of service to the Prep. Faculty who earned tenure at the end of the previous year are also recognized at the dinner.

2015 Turkey Bowl
This was the 92nd Turkey Bowl. On a beautiful Thanksgiving Day at Brooklyn's Aviator Field, the Fordham Prep Rams battled the Xavier Knights all game. After losing a 7-6 lead in the fourth quarter to a holding call in the end zone to be down 8-7, Xavier scored to make it 15-7. Our Matt Valecce connected on several key passing plays to wide receivers Will Lofferdo and Jack Casella to keep the Prep’s final drive going. On 4th & goal with under a minute to go, Jack Casella caught a touchdown pass to make it 15-13. The Rams failed to convert the 2-point play and fell to Xavier. It was an exciting game, and a tough loss.

Connor ‘18

“My Fordham Prep experience allows me to develop my work ethic and make important life reflections that I learned about through our retreats. As my older brother did before me, I realize the skills and knowledge I acquire at The Prep will give me the confidence to succeed in life.”

Connor, a sophomore and member of the Rugby and Track teams, is looking forward to studying international trade and business in college.

Trung '16
At Fordham Prep, I've had the opportunity to work on pastoral formation which has allowed me to be of service to others, and grow in the Jesuit tradition of Cura Personalis.

Trung, an honor student, has been involved in Student Government and Campus Ministry. His experience commitment to social justice. He believes strongly in the First Principle and Foundation of St. Ignatius, “Man is created to praise, reverence and serve God our Lord, and by doing so, to save his soul.”
As a typical middle class kid I was fortunate to find my way to Fordham Prep on the advice of an older cousin instead of getting lost in the larger public school system. While at Fordham Prep, I connected with a diverse group of kids from all over the NY metro area. Many of them remain my friends today over 35 years later.

It wasn’t until several years after I graduated that the teaching of the Jesuits really started to sink in for me: to be a man for others, to commit to develop each and every individual, etc. My wife and I have been fortunate and have spent the majority of our charitable efforts in helping those who wish to experience the benefits of a Catholic education. I receive great pleasure helping those who may not be able to afford some or all of the expense of a Prep tuition, but possess the desire to experience this great tradition.

Mario Ciampi ’78

As a typical middle class kid I was fortunate to find my way to Fordham Prep on the advice of an older cousin instead of getting lost in the larger public school system. While at Fordham Prep, I connected with a diverse group of kids from all over the NY metro area. Many of them remain my friends today over 35 years later.

It wasn’t until several years after I graduated that the teaching of the Jesuits really started to sink in for me: to be a man for others, to commit to develop each and every individual, etc. My wife and I have been fortunate and have spent the majority of our charitable efforts in helping those who wish to experience the benefits of a Catholic education. I receive great pleasure helping those who may not be able to afford some or all of the expense of a Prep tuition, but possess the desire to experience this great tradition.
Over 10 years ago, my wife, Joan, and I met with Fr. Joseph Parkes, president of Fordham Preparatory School, to discuss how I could give back to the Prep. We thought that was a wonderful idea, and it is reinforced each year when we receive short notes from the recipients thanking us for our support and expressing their gratitude for being able to participate in the Fordham Prep experience.

It had been a very important part of my early life through the quality of the education, the tremendous friendships formed and strong sense of school spirit. Fr. Parkes suggested we establish an annual partial scholarship for students from my elementary school, St. Phillip Neri, who were accepted to the Prep to help defray the cost of tuition. If none were accepted, the funds would be used for others.

2015 Annual Report | 19
In that spirit, I created a scholarship fund for me and my family. It will provide a Fordham Prep education for students from Our Lady of Refuge grammar school right here in our Prep’s backyard. My goal is to pass on fr. Devron’s message to other Catholic grammar schools in the Bronx, confidant that a Prep education is indeed possible for all students regardless of their background.

In that spirit, I created a scholarship fund (Huvane’s on 198th) named for my parents business that provided education. With that gift, we were told, much would be expected, not only in terms of a successful life, but also to help others achieve the same. My son Thomas has since graduated FP, and he too feels the same expectations.

When Fr. Devron came on board as president he inspired me in one of his first reports when he said his goal was ... to ensure that any bright and deserving student – regardless of his family’s ability to pay tuition – will have access to a Fordham Prep education. St. Ignatius Loyola, after all, insisted that Jesuit education serves “everyone: rich and poor alike.” Translated into 21st century terms, this means that students, whose families are middle and working class, and the sons of new immigrants to New York, will have adequate tuition assistance to afford a Fordham Prep education.

In that spirit, I created a scholarship fund (Huvane’s on 198th) named for my parents business that provided for me and my family. It will provide a FP education for students from Our Lady of Refuge grammar school right in the Prep’s backyard. My goal is to pass on Fr. Devron’s message to other Catholic grammar schools in the Bronx, inspire them to create similar funds and for them to be confident that a Prep education is indeed possible for all students regardless of their background.

Adrian ‘15
“My Fordham Prep experience has opened my mind to the countless opportunities to explore in the world!”

Statistics on our college placement are impressive. Fordham Prep graduates are currently attending over 200 colleges and universities in the United States, Canada, England and Scotland. One of our many success stories from the class of 2015 is Adrian, a freshman scholarship recipient at College of the Holy Cross. Interested in international economics, Adrian would like to attend business school after graduation.

He believes his experience at Fordham Prep as an Emmaus Retreat leader, his service trip to Ecuador and work at our Summer Academy broadened his worldview and piqued his interest in studying abroad.
We've committed, over many years, to providing Michael '75, William '76 & John '81 McCabe our Jesuit education put us on the right path for the future. The seeds of our later successes in life were sown from Hughes Hall (the affordable, work-study opened our eyes to the best education possible. We hope that our gifts to the Prep otherwise have difficulty attending the Prep.

Michael ‘75, William ‘76 & John ‘81 McCabe

We would most likely not have been able to attend the Prep if it had not been for the work-study program that helped offset the tuition. Aside from making the Prep affordable, work-study opened our eyes to the best techniques for collecting empty soda cans in the Commons, tidying up laboratories and moving books and boxes with a borrowed truck while sneaking a peek at the filming of The Exorcist. The last was an interesting introduction to the Prep.

Generous alumni and friends of the Prep made our education possible. We hope that our gifts to the scholarship funds – as well as those of other generous alumni and friends – will help others who would otherwise have difficulty attending the Prep.

“Fordham Prep has allowed me to give back to my community. With the help of Campus Ministry and other service programs, I’ve learned we can make a difference no matter where we come from. I’m proud of the man Fordham Prep has helped me become...a man for others.”

Steven is well known in the community as a longtime volunteer at POTS (Part of the Solution), located just around the corner from Fordham Prep. He also tutors at our Summer Academy and at St. Ignatius School in Hunts Point. In school, he is a member of both the Spanish and Diversity Alliance clubs.
“My Fordham Prep experience has allowed me to learn from teachers who want me to succeed. They are always available during consultation everyday to help me with my school work. Being at the Prep has also brought new friends from different cultures and backgrounds into my life.”

Matthias is a member of the Italian Club and Track team, and values the support he receives from his teachers and the friends he has made during his time at Fordham Prep.

“My Fordham Prep experience allows me to compete on a national level both in the classroom and on the track. The Prep challenges me in all aspects of my life: intellectually, spiritually and physically.”

Conor, an AP scholar and National Honor Society member, is also a 6-time all-American in indoor and outdoor track. He has travelled to Tennessee on a Christian Service Immersion Trip, and volunteers at a local assisted living facility. He will attend Princeton University next year where he hopes to become an Ivy League Champion in cross country and track while studying biology.

On December 12, Conor finished in 7th place at the 37th Annual Foot Locker National Cross Country Championship in San Diego, California. Conor’s time was 15:20 for the 5,000-meter course, earning him all-American status for the 6th time. The only Fordham Prep athlete ever to qualify for this meet, and the first CHSAA athlete to qualify in 15 years, Conor was the top finisher from New York State and the top finisher from the Northeast region of the United States. His 7th place finish is the highest ever by an athlete from a New York City school.
