The Fordham Prep Experience:
Faith, Scholarship, Service

Based on a legacy that began with the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius and continues through contemporary Ignatian reflections, Jesuit schools are communities of faith, scholarship and service. The intellectual and religious values that motivate our mission as a Jesuit school guide each individual’s total development. We challenge all our students to reflect, question, learn, pray, love, serve, lead.

Our graduates are lifelong learners, agents of positive change, spiritually motivated and committed to justice. They are men for others.

Fordham Preparatory School is a Jesuit, all-male, Catholic, college preparatory school. Our commitment to education is shaped by the spirituality and pedagogical tradition of the Society of Jesus, founded in 1540 by St. Ignatius of Loyola. Fordham Prep stresses the development of excellence in the whole person: intellectual, religious, social, emotional and physical. Today, our educational apostolate is strengthened by our affiliation with the local, national and international networks of Jesuit secondary schools.

Jesuit Education

• A Spirituality that encourages our students and staff to see God in all things with an expansive worldview

• A pedagogy that engages the world through analysis of context, experience, and open to evaluation through reflection for the sake of action

• A faith that seeks to do justice
A Community of Faith

Rooted in the Catholic tradition, we look to Jesus Christ as the revelation of God and humanity. We seek to foster knowledge and love of God and neighbor, and welcome the gifts that non-Catholic members of our community contribute to that mission. We encourage all members of our community to evaluate dominant cultural values in the context of their faith.

The Campus Ministry Department offers a number of events, activities and programs to nurture and strengthen the spiritual growth of all our students.

Finding God in All Things
- This is the core of Ignatian Spirituality and is rooted in our growing awareness that God can be found in every person, in every place and in every thing
A Community of Scholarship

Jesuit education reflects the conviction that the study of great ideas is inextricably linked to the formation of character. Our program of studies encompasses more than the acquisition of knowledge; it fosters academic discipline and encourages reflection in the pursuit of excellence.

Fordham Prep’s curriculum is designed to discover and hone individual talents and abilities. Students are exposed not only to their strengths but also to those courses and areas that will challenge them.

Educating Men for Others
• An offering of our gifts and talents in service to our world, especially to the poor and marginalized

Honors Program at Fordham Prep
Honors, Advanced and Advanced Placement courses are available beginning in freshman and sophomore year. Students may take seven classes after freshman year. For all students the curriculum provides a full college preparatory education. Seniors can attend college classes at Fordham University and do research at the University library.

Classical and Modern Languages
All students take Latin or Ancient Greek in their first year. Thereafter a student may continue his classical language or begin a modern language or a second classical language in sophomore year. In all cases, students finish senior year with the equivalent of four years of a foreign language and complete at least the third level of a language.

1 to 1 Computing
Fordham Prep students and faculty employ laptops, notebooks, telephones and tablet PCs for continuous use in the classroom, around school and at home, allowing the FP community to learn, research and create on a 24-7 basis, and to become fluent in the technological tools of the 21st century. Using the community’s wireless access to the Internet, word processing and multimedia tools on a 1-to-1 basis encourages new styles of teaching and learning, supports improved research and assignments, and promotes more differentiated, collaborative and project-based learning.

A Community of Service

St. Ignatius’ declaration that “love ought to manifest itself in deeds rather than words” is embodied today in the call to be men and women for others. As a community of service, we put our faith into action by being companions to our brothers and sisters in need and by working to promote justice.

Christian Service Program
Fordham Prep is committed to fostering in its students the belief that the gifts they have been given should be put in service of all God’s creation, especially people in need. To achieve the goal of making service an integral part of every student’s experience, Fordham has a four-year service requirement for all students.

Freshmen and Sophomores
Mentor group projects seek to relieve suffering through charity and to promote justice through education and advocacy.

Juniors
15 hours of individual service to the Prep and local communities.

Seniors
70 hours of individual service directly to community agencies. Seniors give over 17,000 hours of service each year to those in need.

Leadership Opportunities
All students can join the Social Justice Committee and Just Serve, the school’s service club. Sophomores, juniors and seniors have the opportunity to serve on the Ministry Leadership Team; juniors and seniors lead retreats and serve the community as Eucharistic Ministers. Members of the National Honor Society serve as peer tutors.

Social Justice
Various events throughout the year raise student awareness of justice issues, including an annual school-wide social justice assembly, Hunger Awareness Month a school-wide food drive to benefit local soup kitchens, the Ignatian Family Teach-In and the Pax Christi Good Friday Peace Walk.

Contemplatives in Action

- The Ignatian model: a constant interplay between action & reflection, work & prayer, doing & knowing
Christian Service Immersion Trips
Each summer, groups of students and faculty travel to Camden, NJ, the Appalachia Mountain Region in Tennessee and South America for weeklong experiences of service and prayer in communion with people who live in poverty.

Camden
Students travel to Camden to work with the Romero Center in an immersion experience of prayer, service and simple living.

Tennessee
Students and faculty travel to Tennessee to live in simple, prayerful community while building homes in partnership with Habitat for Humanity.

South America
Students and faculty travel to Ecuador to live in community at the Working Boys Center and visit schools, community programs and hospitals.

Senior Service Sites
Students serve at over 90 sites in the greater metropolitan area. Many sites serve people in the greatest need.

Open to Growth
A graduate takes responsibility for his own growth as a person; is more conscious of his feelings and more authentic in expressing them; is more flexible and open to other points of view; is in the habit of reflecting on experiences.

Religious
A graduate takes more responsibility for exploring and validating his own faith; has some personal experience of God, and is learning to express himself in various methods of prayer.

Loving
A graduate is learning the true fidelity of friends, members of his family and adults in the Prep community; accepts that he is loved by God and others; appreciates the satisfaction of giving of himself for other people and finding his life enriched through service.

Jesuit education
• Growth in knowledge and love of God and neighbor
• An experience that shapes a lifetime

Committed to Justice
A graduate is aware of attitudes and tendencies that lead one to treat others unjustly; begins to see that faith implies a commitment to a just society; understands better the structural roots of injustice in social institutions, attitudes and customs; begins to confront some of the moral ambiguities imbedded in values promoted by Western culture.

Striving for Wellness of Mind and Body
A graduate appreciates physical activity, interpersonal skills, wellness, and creativity; is learning the importance of collaborative teamwork and sharing the responsibilities of creating a successful end product in multiple learning environments.

The Grad at Grad
Each graduate appreciates that all aspects of his life contribute to the development toward greater maturity, toward living his life as a “man for others.” Six general categories sum up the many aspects of a graduate of a Jesuit high school.
The School Day
Attendance is at 8:25 AM. Proper school dress includes dress shirt, tie, jacket and shoes. The six-day cycle has eight 40-minute periods per day. The library and computer center are open from 8 AM to 4:30 PM. Breakfast and lunch are available in the Prep’s Commons. Classes end at 2:35 PM.

Consultation Period
Students are regularly assigned one-half hour of nightly homework in each subject. To further assist students, teachers are available for consultation each day after school from 2:35 to 3 PM: every teacher, every day.

Faculty Development
The Spiritual Exercises of Ignatius, the principles of Ignatian pedagogy, and the close reading of key Fordham Prep documents – including our mission Statement and Philosophy – help our faculty gain deeper insights into what makes a Jesuit school Jesuit. Non-tenured faculty work together; tenured faculty create individual professional development plans each year and select projects which will enhance their Ignatian contribution to the school. Research and practice help expand the imaginations of all faculty in what it means to help students learn.

Mentoring Program
Each student is a member of a mentor group, a small group of students assigned to a teacher for academic and personal support. A mentor is a role model and guide, providing individual attention on a daily basis. A student’s interaction with his mentor has a significant formative effect upon academic and personal growth. This close relationship is one of the hallmarks of a Jesuit education. Freshman mentor groups meet for two 40-minute periods per week. This is in addition to the weekly group sessions with a counselor.

Facility Improvements

This is an exciting time at Fordham Prep with new design projects in the Lynch Commons, our front entrance and our Chapel of St. Joseph. The Commons will be completed by the beginning of the school year; the new entrance and lobby will be dedicated later in the fall. Our new chapel will be built next summer. In the past ten years, Fordham Prep has invested over $15 million in campus upgrades to its physical plant.

The Commons has been completely renovated. It is brighter and has six digital screens and a new Dean’s Office.

In the new entrance, visitors will be greeted by two larger than life bronze reliefs of our patron saints St. Ignatius Loyola and St. John the Baptist. The lobby will include video monitors, original student artwork, displays from our archives and comfortable areas for guests, students and faculty.

When the new chapel is built on the third floor, it will have natural light from the large windows facing the University Church, and will seat 80 worshipers—a space large enough for a class reunion or an Emmaus Retreat homecoming, but still small enough to celebrate intimately the baptism of an alumnus’ baby.

Technology

- High-speed network & state-of-the-art software
- Smart classrooms
- High-resolution, color scanners and printers
- Campus-wide wireless network
- Full internet access and e-mail for all students

The library includes computer workstations, Guidance Center, seminar and conference rooms (each with its own smart podium and electronic whiteboard) and an Art Reference Library with the largest collection of prints and art reference works of any high school in the metropolitan area.
Guidance and Counseling

Fordham Prep offers a comprehensive, developmental, four-year program of individual and group guidance for all students. Nine counselors and a consulting certified social worker support the learning process by addressing students’ academic, personal, social, college and career development.

Individual Counseling
Students meet with their counselors individually for academic advisement and for personal/social/emotional counseling. Counselors refer students to other resources as needed, i.e., peer tutoring, our Academic Support Group, consultation with teachers, our school social worker, etc.

Group Guidance
This curriculum component ensures that each student meets with his counselor once every six days in a small group. At every grade level, the guidance curriculum is structured, developmental and flexible, enabling the counselors to effectively address the students’ various needs.

Support Groups
These voluntary groups are open to all students. Current groups include Freshman Transition, Bereavement, Assertiveness and Single-Parent Families.

Special Programs
Various programs are designed to address the particular needs of students and/or parents, and include assemblies and programs on alcohol and drug prevention, cyberbullying & internet safety, Freshman Parent Night, Sophomore Dream Day, Sophomore Parent Information Night, Financial Planning for College, Selective College Admissions Panel, Junior Parent College Orientation, College Application Night for Senior Parents and a Jesuit College Fair.

College Counseling
Care of the individual is a hallmark of Jesuit education, and is a cornerstone of the college counseling program. The college counseling program is designed to help students and their families navigate the intricacies of the college search and college application processes. Through individual and group meetings, the college counseling team covers the college search, the application process, financial aid and college selection. Each fall, more than 100 colleges and universities conduct interviews and information sessions at Fordham Prep, including the Jesuit college fair. All students and their families have access to Naviance (a comprehensive, web-based college planning program). Fordham Prep’s goal is to find a college that is the right fit for each senior.
College Placement

Each year, 99% of Fordham Prep graduates matriculate at two-year and four-year colleges. Graduates enroll at public and private schools across the United States and abroad. Typically, more than 30% of the graduating class chooses to continue their educations at a Jesuit college or university. More than 60% of our graduates are enrolled at colleges and universities labeled as most selective.

Tuition, Scholarship & Financial Aid

Fordham Prep’s Board of Trustees sets aside funds each year for academic scholarships for qualified students and financial aid for families with demonstrated need.

Tuition

Tuition for the 2015-2016 academic year is $18,410. The actual cost to Fordham Prep of educating a student is over $21,000. The difference between this actual cost and the tuition is made up through continual development efforts. Families with the means to do so are encouraged to consider funding the total cost of educating a student. At the heart of this request is the concern to keep tuition as low as possible and to ensure the character of Fordham Prep.

Financial Aid

This year Fordham Prep provided over $3.5 million in assistance. Students are not required to work in exchange for this assistance. To apply for financial aid, families must submit an online application by December 15. Supporting documentation and a processing fee are required. Hard copy application forms are available at Fordham Prep’s open house and from the Admissions Office if needed.

Academic Scholarships

The following merit-based scholarships are awarded to students entering the ninth grade with outstanding entrance exam scores and academic records. Eligible students are invited for an interview and further testing with their acceptance notice.

- Ignatius
  - 3 full scholarships

- Presidential
  - 10 scholarships from $4,000 to $7,000

- Loyola
  - 15 scholarships of $2,000

This year, 45% of our students receive scholarships and/or financial assistance.
Admissions

Fordham Prep seeks students who share the philosophy of the school, are able and willing to do college preparatory work, are open to learning and new experiences, and are enthusiastic about a Jesuit education. Applicants for the ninth grade should follow the guidelines below.

Application

Complete our application by December 15. Our online application is available on the Admissions page of our website: fordhamprep.org.

Grades

Send a copy of seventh grade marks and the first marking period of eighth grade to the Admissions Office by December 15. Catholic grammar schools routinely send an applicant's academic record to each of his three high school choices. If you attend a public or private grammar school, please send copies of your report cards to the Admissions Office.

Entrance Exam

Fordham Prep accepts results from several entrance exams, including the Test for Admission into Catholic High Schools (TACHS), CO-OP, ISEE, STS and SSAT. If you are taking the TACHS or CO-OP, please list Fordham Prep as one of your three choices. It does not matter where you list Fordham Prep; any of the three choices is acceptable and does not affect admission, scholarship or financial aid.

RAM FOR A DAY

Applicants are encouraged to schedule a visit to Fordham Prep. The program is open to any interested eighth-grader and is intended to help each applicant make a well-informed decision about Fordham Prep.

Visitors spend the entire day in the company of a freshman, getting a personal view of Fordham Prep. Please visit the Admissions section of our website to register for a visit.

Fordham Prep is accredited by the New York State Board of Regents and the New York Association of Independent Schools, and is a member of the Jesuit Secondary Education Association and the National Catholic Education Association.

Fordham Prep does not discriminate for any reason including race, religion or national origin in the admission of students or in the administration of its policies.
As a Jesuit, college preparatory school, Fordham Prep's mission is to inspire young men to reflect, to question, to learn, to pray, to love, to serve, to lead. Since 1841, we have based our challenging curriculum and pursuit of human and academic excellence on a foundation of Catholic faith and principles. We seek to be one community created from a broad spectrum of ethnic, racial, geographic, and socio-economic backgrounds. We strive to include qualified students of limited financial resources by providing substantial financial assistance. Our faculty and staff dedicate themselves to a caring and dynamic interaction outside the classroom, a characteristic of Jesuit education for over 450 years. We educate our students to be men for others: spiritually motivated, intellectually accomplished and committed to promoting justice.
