

Service Reflection Requirements for Students Participating in Fordham Prep's Summer Immersion Trip to Ecuador (Working Boys Center)

Keep a journal that will be provided to you during the trip.

Write a letter to benefactors (those people who supported you with financial and other contributions):

thank them for their support and indicate how the money/support they gave was utilized describe the trip to Ecuador and your impressions of Quito (especially as it compares to the United States and your neighborhood) describe the daily routine (accommodations, sleep, meals, schedule, recreation, showering, etc.)

describe the Working Boys Center, its staff, and the services it provides describe the people you met: their needs and what impressed you most about them describe the kinds of experiences you had (work, companionship visits, tours, etc.)

reflect on what it was like to live in community based on simplicity, prayer, and service how have you grown/changed from the experience what commitments are you willing to make as a result of the experience.

Thank them again

Give your journal and a copy of your letter to your service teacher. Also give a copy of your letter to Mr. Carney.
